INTRODUCTION

Prosecution of bad checks is an important service the State's Attorney's Office supplies to Stutsman County. In 1996, the Stutsman County State's Attorney recognized providing this service had become more problematic. Not only had the number of requests for prosecution of non-sufficient fund checks increased, so too had other crimes involving the use of checks.

A common defense raised to these charges was that someone else passed the check. If the clerk who accepted the check did not verify that the defendant is the person who passed the check, then the prosecution will be unsuccessful. Use of the processes outlined in this packet has diminished the amounts of cases in which this sort of defense is asserted.

By adopting a policy of taking checks only from persons who present a valid acceptable form of photo ID, or from persons who are personally known by the clerk, two things will be accomplished: (1) an NSF defendant will be blocked from claiming (s)he did not pass the check; and (2) forgery and other crimes involving the use of another's check will be blocked.

REQUIRED PROCEDURES

These procedures are effective 1 July 2000. If the Stutsman County State's Attorney's Office is to prosecute an NSF check after 1 July 2000, these procedures must be used.

1. The check must have been presented in Stutsman County.
2. A driver's license or other photo ID issued by a government agency must have been used to verify the identification of the person offering the check. Indicate that this was done by writing on the check the date of birth and the expiration date of the driver's license or the date of birth appearing on the other form of ID. (There are two exceptions to the ID requirement. One is noted just below in paragraph 3. The other is for checks mailed to a business in Stutsman County, for payment of a debt that is in the name of the person signing the check and sending the check.)
3. If the clerk personally knows the person passing the check, the clerk must indicate it on the check by marking PK for personally known. This can be done instead of the ID process, but only if the clerk knows the name of the person who passes the check simply by seeing their face and will testify to this ability and the basis for it.
4. Ensure that the name, address, and phone number of the person offering the check are on the check and according to the offeror, are correct.
5. Initial or code the check so that it is clear who accepted the check.
6. Present request for prosecution to this office within 90 days of its first presentment and refusal for payment at the bank. To ensure that your complaint will be completed inside the 90 days allotted by statute, please bring it to the State's Attorney's office within 75 days of receiving it.
7. Request for prosecution must include a completed Stutsman County State's Attorney's Office Request for NSF Prosecution form.

FRAMEWORK FOR NONSUFFICIENT FUND CHECK PROSECUTION

When you request prosecution of an nonsufficient (NSF) check and provide us with the check and the request for prosecution form, we prepare a complaint for you to sign in front of an officer authorized by law to administer oaths in North Dakota. Although it is not absolutely necessary that you sign the complaint in front of a notary in the Stutsman County courthouse, we provide the service free of charge at the State's Attorney's office to ensure that the original check (which must be attached to the complaint) is not lost. After the merchant signs the complaint, a District Judge signs it and the defendant is summoned to court. Please note that when you execute a document before a notary public, you are signing the document under oath.

At the initial appearance, the judge informs the defendant of his/her rights. In misdemeanor and felony cases a defendant may request court appointed counsel. Counsel is appointed (when the defendant is indigent) and then a trial date is set. Our witness coordinator contacts you and notifies you of the date of trial. Then she arranges for issuance of the subpoena for the person from your business who accepted the check and for a representative from the defendant's bank.

If the defendant pleads guilty, the normal sentence includes an order to pay restitution to the business. Restitution is first sent to the Clerk of Court's office, not directly to the business. The Clerk of Court disperses restitution to the business. This way the court knows if the defendant failed to make restitution and can hold the defendant in contempt for failing.

Our office prosecutes these cases because they are crimes. We seek a criminal conviction including a criminal record and a sentence. The Clerk of Court's office reviews the Judge's orders and determines which defendants have failed to make restitution and then schedules these people to come before the judge and show cause why the judge should not hold the defendant in contempt.

Once an NSF complaint is signed, we do not dismiss it prior to prosecution because the check is paid. The crime of NSF occurs when the person passes the check and there is not enough money in the account. Later payment of the check does not erase that crime.

STATUTE

§ 6-08-16. Issuing check or draft without sufficient funds or credit--Notice--Time limitation--Financial liability--Penalty

1. A person may not, for that person, as the agent or representative of another, or as an officer or member of a firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, make, draw, utter, or deliver any check, draft, or order, or authorize an electronic funds transfer, for the payment of money upon a bank, banker, or depository, if at the time of the making, drawing, uttering, electronically authorizing, or delivery, or at the time of presentation for payment, if the presentation for payment is made within fourteen days after the original delivery thereof, there are not sufficient funds in or credit with the bank, banker, or depository to meet the check, draft, electronic funds transfer, or order in full upon its authorized presentation. Violation of this subsection is:

a. An infraction if the amount of insufficient funds or credit is not more than fifty dollars;

b. A class B misdemeanor if the amount of insufficient funds or credit is more than fifty dollars but not more than two hundred fifty dollars, or if the individual has pled guilty or been found guilty of a violation of this section within three years of issuing an insufficient funds check, draft, or order;

c. A class A misdemeanor if the amount of insufficient funds or credit is more than two hundred fifty dollars but not more than five hundred dollars, or if the individual has pled guilty or been found guilty of two violations of this section within three years of issuing an insufficient funds check, draft, or order; or

d. A class C felony if the amount of insufficient funds or credit is more than five hundred dollars, or an individual has pled guilty or been found guilty of three or more violations of this section within five years of willfully issuing an insufficient funds check, draft, or order.

2. The grade of an offense under this section may be determined by individual or aggregate totals of insufficient funds checks, drafts, electronic funds transfer authorizations, or orders. The person is also liable for collection fees or costs, not in excess of twenty dollars, which are recoverable by civil action by the holder, or its agent or representative, of the check, draft, electronic funds transfer authorization, or order. A collection agency shall reimburse the original holder of the check, draft, electronic funds transfer authorization, or order any additional charges assessed by the depository bank of the check, draft, electronic funds transfer authorization, or order not in excess of two dollars if recovered by the collection agency. A civil penalty is also recoverable by civil action by the holder, or its agent or representative, of the check, draft, electronic funds transfer authorization, or order. The civil penalty consists of payment to the holder, or its agent or representative, of the instrument of the lesser of one hundred dollars or three times the amount of the instrument. The court may order an individual convicted under this section to undergo an evaluation by a licensed gaming, alcohol, or drug addiction counselor.

3. The word "credit" as used in this section means an arrangement or understanding with the bank, banker, or depository for the payment of the check, draft, electronic funds transfer authorization, or order. The making of a postdated check knowingly received as such, or of a check issued under an agreement with the payee that the check would not be presented for payment for a time specified, does not violate this section.

4. A notice of dishonor may be mailed by the holder, or the holder's agent or representative, of the check upon dishonor. Proof of mailing may be made by return receipt or by an affidavit of mailing signed by the individual making the mailing. The notice must be in substantially the following form:

Notice of Dishonored Check

Date _____

Name of Issuer _____

Street Address _____

City and State _____

You are according to law hereby notified that a check dated, 19..., drawn on the Bank of in the amount of has been returned unpaid with the notation the payment has been refused because of nonsufficient funds. Within ten days from the receipt of this notice, you must pay or tender to (Holder) sufficient moneys to pay such instrument in full and any collection fees or costs not in excess of fifteen dollars.

The notice may also contain a recital of the penal provisions of this section and the possibility of a civil action to recover any collection fees or costs or civil penalty authorized by this section.

5. An agent acting for the receiver of a check in violation of this section may present the check to the state's attorney for prosecution if the holder, or the holder's agent or representative, mailed a notice under subsection 4. The criminal complaint for the offense of issuing a check, draft, electronic funds transfer authorization, or order without sufficient funds under this section must be executed within not more than ninety days after the dishonor by the drawee of said instrument for nonsufficient funds. The failure to execute a complaint within said time bars the criminal charge under this section.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Do not accept two party checks, post dated checks, or checks that you must hold for some time before you present them for payment.
2. Consider taking any out of state check carefully. This office's power to obtain jurisdiction over residents in other states is very limited.
3. Present all checks for payment within 14 days of receipt. We suggest that you deposit all checks no later than the next business day.
